Apply Visual Thinking Skills

DIRECTIONS: Examine the political cartoon below. Then answer the questions that follow.

1. When was this political cartoon drawn? ______________________________________

2. The cartoon caption points out that the general was reviewing French troops in America. Why were there French troops in America? ______________________________________

3. What conclusions can you draw about the cartoonist’s opinion of the French soldiers? ______________________________________

4. What specific items in the cartoon led you to your conclusion? ______________________________________

Use after reading Chapter 8, Skill Lesson, page 235.